Download the Chrome extension CRX files from the Google Chrome extension store using this extension. ## The source code for the extension is available here. I noticed that once I added this extension to Chrome, it couldn't load Chrome extensions for CRX files, and I was able to see that it caused Chrome to crash when I tried to google for this error. I have looked at various posts but no one has answered this problem. I also used Chrome as usual, and after updating and downloading the CRX files of the extension, the extension successfully loaded all the extensions for the CRX files. This is my current code from Chrome: fffad4f19a
