(The Denver Post) Six former employees of a rural Colorado nursing home have been charged with abusing residents as part of a lengthy and sordid pattern of sexual abuse and harassment that has killed more than 20 residents in the past year, officials said. On July 30, a little more than a year after The Denver Post first exposed shocking alleged abuse at the El Dorado Hills Home for Assisted Living in Aurora, a judge granted a long-sought motion by prosecutors to add the names of the six former employees to the 32 other people charged in connection with the nursing home's grim history of resident abuse. The new charges include two counts of first-degree murder, one count of second-degree murder and one count of
