On November 15, 2019, by Sargent Joseph, an authorized user of Microsoft Office may search in the internet for titles and some other things related to Office 365. At that time, Google Chrome may download the title "Office 2019" as a file called "Office 2019.exe", and store it on a hard disk, which may be read by a computer. After opening the file, a user may attempt to install the Office 2019 program on the computer. Once installed, the new program will install a program called "UltimateComp.exe" on the computer. The program "UltimateComp.exe" is a program designed to implement unauthorized functionality in the title "Office 2019". It will generate fake and
