Just like FIFA Ultimate Team, Live Events also have a different mode called Seasons. Seasons is a completely new mode introduced in FIFA 22. Seasons include a new mode, the Manager Mode. In Manager Mode, you will be able to manage a roster of 25 players, have a new training mode, and gain from the experience and money of other Manager Mode players. The Ultimate Team mode that is in FIFA is back. You can build your Ultimate Team from cards and coins bought using real money (and not FIFA Points). These teams can be upgraded with skilled players called Trained Upgrades. The Face of Football FIFA will now have 28 licensed top-class player faces, including many new faces never before seen in any football video game. Exclusive to FIFA, 24 of these new faces have been created in close collaboration with the best national football associations and players' unions around the world. FIFA hopes to embody authenticity and realism in all aspects of its video game, including the face of the players. The best players have a unique and distinct face that conveys something of their personality, character and role within a football team. But what best represents a player's identity and individuality? The Faces of the Player Eight of the players are new. The faces are not only being developed to capture the personality of the player, but also to honor their position within the football team. The best players have a unique and distinct face that conveys something of their personality, character and role within a football team. But what best represents a player's identity and individuality? The artistic sketches of the players were inspired by the faces of each player, and their scientific research. Art direction was also used to think about different expressions, how the player is facing and what the player is wearing. The player's face is enlarged to make it fit on a canvas that is 3.6 meters long, 3.2 meters wide and 1.8 meters high. Unlockable Player Cards and Leagues There are other new content present in FIFA 22 that will be accessible from the main menu. The new interactive card packs and leagues bring a new touch to the game. At the launch of the game, you will be able to purchase packs from FIFA.com and another FIFA Social Club called FIFA Interactive. Packs are of 5, 10 or 15 cards for £3.99, £7
